

VIA CONDOTTI

Maurizio Di Mauro - 2016

DESCRIPTION

Three times beautiful and vintage: a charming design, where the play of materials not only uses exceptional protagonists, but becomes the strong point of Via Condotti. Saddle, fabric and wood make this essential masterpiece of rationality that, elegant as the street it takes its name from, perfectly adapts to the most modern settings. Its legs are in Canaletto walnut or ash open-pore and the structure in metal saddle covered.

DESCRIZIONE

Tre volte bella e retrò: un disegno di charme, dove il contrasto materico non solo sfrutta eccezionali protagonisti, ma è il primo a diventare il punto di forza di Via Condotti. Cuoio, tessuto e legno compongono questo capolavoro di razionalità dal taglio minimal che, elegante come la via da cui prende il nome, si adatta particolarmente bene agli ambienti più moderni. Le gambe sono in legno massello di noce canaletto o frassino e la struttura è in metallo rivestita in cuoio.
